Small Screen:

Header: The header contains the logo on the right side and an expandable navigation menu on the left. The navigation menu expands to show 2 rows of 5 links.

Section: This section is the main area the user sees which showcases designs that are clickable and would take the user to the apparel page featuring those designs.

Footer: The footer just uses social media icons that would route the users to the social media site

Interactivity: Everything on the site would be clickable. The navigation buttons would take the user to the specific pages they click on. The apparel images in section 1 would take the user to the specific apparel items such as hoodies, shirts, or ball caps. The social media icons on the bottom would redirect the user straight to the Instagram, twitter etc. pages.
